AIR FORCE CANCELS INTERVIEWS

ANNOUNCER: The Central Intelligence Agency and the Air Force have called off plans to conduct job interviews on the University of Wisconsin capus in Madison.

The interviews were cancelled in the face of threatened anti-war demonstrations.

University President Fred Harrington said,'It was their decision, not ours.

The announcement came less than twenty four hours after it was disclosed that two hundred deputies and policemen would be on hand to maintain order.

The Navy and Marines plan to go ahead with their interviews on Monday.
